Mr. George Aurell
Washington, D. C.

Dear George:

The response of the Far East Division, and their staffs the warm appreciation which their prompt and thoughtful efforts evoked throughout the Washington intelligence community. Their cabled reports of fact and judgment gave weight and added authenticity to one of the year's most important estimates. This estimate was regarded as extremely valuable by the Secretary of State; and was read in person by the President.

Well done.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
